

155mm M107 HE

High Explosive

The M107 is a versatile and reliable 155mm high-explosive projectile designed for use with a variety of howitzers. It delivers devastating firepower against a wide range of targets, including infantry, armored vehicles, and fortifications.

Main Characteristics
Caliber	155 mm
Weight	95lbs (~43.2 kg)
Length w/o Fuze	23.9 in (~607 mm)
Explosive Fill/ (kg)	TNT (~6.6 kg) / COMP B (~7 kg)
Color	Olive Drab w/ Yellow Markings
Range	up to ~18.1 km

modirum | GESPI

155mm M107 HE

High Explosive

The M107's robust construction and high-explosive filler ensure maximum effectiveness in combat. Our shells are equipped with a point detonating / proximity fuze, providing flexibility in various tactical scenarios. We can ship with other fuze types upon request.

Fuze Specifications

Type	Electronic fuze (standard). Other types upon request.
Operating modes (manually set)	Point detonating (PD): Detonates warhead on impact with target. Delay: Detonates warhead after 50 milliseconds from impact with target.
Safety & arming	Two independent arming mechanisms: Set back force of 400g minimum. Spin rate of 1700 RPM minimum.
Temperature limits	Firing: from -40° to +63°. Storage: from -46° to +71°
Explosive output	Booster pellet: 27g of Comp. CH-6 or A-5
Military standards	MIL-STD-331, MIL-STD-333, MIL-STD-1316, STANAG 4187